New Year - New Projects!

Happy New Year! I hope that you have all had a great winter break and are ready for a busy couple of months.

I can't believe that it is the end of January already and before we know it, it will be spring break and then June and summer holidays. The PTA committee has a list of great activities to round out the school year. Some are for parents and some are for the children but we hope that you all can be involved in some way.

At the coming February PTA meeting there are lots of issues to discuss including an outline of events for the rest of the year.

Some of the events we are looking at are:

- Read-a-thon/Book Week
- A big birthday
- Teacher appreciation
- K2 Graduation
- Cook book or year book

Please try and come along to the meeting next Wednesday February 3rd to have some input or speak to a committee member to find out more.

I hope to see you all soon

PTA President

and enhance this very special occasion!

In addition if you would like to play an integral role and join the planning team in this forthcoming event we would welcome you to assist as much time and expertise as you can!!

New Room Mums

Picasso and Galileo have new room mums with the loss of Mel Wilson (Aleisha Paul's mum) and Valarie James (Victoire and Edward James' mum) at Christmas.

Picasso's new room mums are Jean (Rachel's Mum) and Soohyun (Katherine Kim's mum).

Galileo's new room mum is Eva Bakker (Maxim's mum).

We welcome them as room mum's and thank them for their assistance to the teachers and parents of Picasso and Galileo classes.
