Spring into books—its book week time!

Spring is here this month and we have our annual read-a-thon as part of our book week. Do you children like cuddling up to have a story read to them, like mine?

Look out for some of the fabulous activities we have planned for this years book week. If you are able to spare some time to come in and help in your child's class it is always well received.

You should have received your invitations to the school's 40th birthday party to be held on April 24th. We hope that you can join us for a great night of fun and fundraising for the school.

March also sees the return of our PTA activities, scrapbooking on the 10th and a trip to an antique market on the 17th. Please ensure to RSVP.

I hope to see you around school at some time.

Book Week: 12th~19th March

This year we are having a great line up of activities to celebrate the love of reading.

We have a fun theme to excite the children—this will be revealed on the 11th!

Some of the activities that we have planned during book week include:

Pre-Loved Book Sale: On Tuesday 9th we will have our pre-loved book sale. A form will be sent home next week with the details of how you and your children can participate.

We do have a collection of pre-loved books, but if you haven't sent any books in or you have more books to donate, please send them to Mrs Park by Friday 5th March.

Pre-loved books can be novels, biographies, magazines, comics, children's books or, picture books - all will be kindly accepted.

Read-a-thon: Book week will also feature the annual read-a-thon. The focus this year is books 4 books. For every 5 books read, 1 book will be donated to either the ECLC library, or a South Korean children's orphanage or school in need (up to 5 orphanages and/or schools have been chosen).

Please note that the collection of sponsors or donations is voluntary. We would however encourage participation in the reading at home part of the read-a-thon.

Dress up day: Friday 19 March

Friday 19th is a 'Come dressed as your favourite book character' day. It'll be great fun for the kids.

Parent Readers Needed: Parents will be invited to come to school to read stories to the children. This can be in your native language—there will be morning and afternoon sessions to accommodate as many parents as possible

PTA Meeting

Guest Teacher : Mr Daniel from Galileo

Where: Hillside Residence

When: Wednesday 3rd March 2010

Time: 9.30am
